

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Sugar 3 1-16.

Brown Cotton 36 inches wide 16 yards for $1 at Kerr's.

Ole Olson to-morrow evening. Buy tickets at Hobron's right away.

The Doric sails at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Yokohama and Hongkong.

The Leilani Boat Club meet at the Hawaiian Hotel at 7:30 this evening.

The Hilo Bar passed appropriate resolutions on the death of the late Judge Stafford L. Austin.

Victorino de Mello, a well-known Portuguese resident of Hilo, died at that place on the 25th ult.

The Doric's purser is, in decent deportment, an immeasurable contrast to the gentlemanly commander.

On the 24th ult. John R. Gentry paced the fastest mile ever made in harness, placing the world's record at 2:00 1/2.

The Hilo Hotel has changed hands. From the 15th inst. the popular hostelry will be in charge of Mrs. L. T. Grant.

L. de L. Ward left by the Iwalani yesterday afternoon for Honokaa. The wedding day with Miss Rickard has been fixed for the 14th inst.

Contestants for the honor of playing in the Town Team baseball team should meet outside the Armory at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

On the 26th ult., on the San Francisco Stock and Board Exchange, Hawaiian Commercial sold at 13 1/4 to 14, and Hutchinson Plantation at 13 1/2.

Captain Christian Couradt of the Star baseball team has forwarded the formal acceptance of the challenge of the Maui team for Saturday next.

Messrs. Wall, Towse and McChesney have been appointed a committee to formulate a plan for the admission of Junior members to the Healan Boat Club.

Lieut. Giles, Sergt. Schmidt and Privates Otterson and Edwards have been appointed a reception committee by Co. B to welcome their captain on his return next month.

C. S. Bradford, the late editor of the Hawaii Herald, is suing the owners of that paper for $299.99 wages claimed to be due to him. Such is newspaper life in the tropics.

According to the Hilo papers the age of the late Judge Austin was 73 years at the time of his death, as was stated in THE INDEPENDENT, and not 81 years as our contemporaries have it.

E. Hoshino, a prominent Japanese jeweler on Nuuanu street, was arrested on board the Doric last evening on a charge of attempting to smuggle watches. He was released on a $1000 bail.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neumann are enjoying good health, and as all of Mr. Neumann's business matters are progressing favorably, it is more than probable that he will not return to Honolulu before the end of the year.

At the Royal Annex an adjunct to the Royal Saloon patrons will find the prettiest little sample room in town and the famous Corregio. At lunch time a pleasing lunch is spread, and all the liquors supplied are of the finest quality.

If you desire to have a perfect dramatic treat and wish to show your aloha for Co. B, be sure and take a ticket for their benefit to-morrow evening. Ole Olson with Bob Scott and his distinguished company be a splendid performance.

President Dole is shooting pigs and hunting goats at Puuwaawaa. To secure his signature to Mr. A. Ross's commission as Circuit Judge the Iwalani yesterday with the Attorney-General and the to-be judge on board steered for Kona, to find the missing president and obtain his autograph.

Private advices in regard to the health of Col. Volney V. Ashford are that he has somewhat improved, and has removed from San Francisco to Hayward's on a visit to a near relative. It is feared that paralysis of his lower limbs will soon set in, and but slight hopes are entertained of his permanent recovery.

Hon. John T. Dare formerly Attorney-General under the monarchy, has been nominated State Senator from the 19th Senatorial District of California on the Republican ticket. Prior to his coming to Honolulu he served in the Assembly with credit. After his return to California he held high legal office in San Francisco.

Burial of Nawahi.

The devotion of the Hawaiians to the late Joseph K. Nawahi was well illustrated by the genuine mourning of his countrymen upon the arrival of his body at Hilo on the 2nd inst.

On Friday morning the Hawaii with her flag at half-mast dropped anchor in Hilo bay. Four large double canoes draped in black with platforms for the coffin put off for the steamer and shortly after the remains were placed on the leading canoes and the family and friends followed in the others. The procession of boats passed up the Waiake and Waioa rivers the sides of which were crowded by Hawaiians dressed in mourning and greeting the arrival of the body of their dead leader with the customary wailing.

The coffin covered with the Hawaiian flag was placed on a hearse and dragged by hundreds of Hawaiian to Haili Church where the remains of Nawahi lay in state until the funeral which took place on Sunday, the 4th inst., in the presence of over 1000 people.

Reverend S. L. Desha officiated on the mournful occasion and made a very eloquent address in Hawaiian.

The honorary pall-bearers were Judge Hapai, John Baker, F. S. Lyman, J. Maka, H. B. Nalimu, Henry Williams, James Nakapua, Rufus Lyman and the regular pall-bearers, Ewaliko, Kaalana Ewaliko, William Nailina, Jr., James Nakapua, Jr., J. Kalanoo, Kalili, Luukapu and Moses Kipi.

Death of Captain McGregor.

Captain Alick McGregor, died at 11 o'clock this morning from an attack of dropsy extending over five or six months. The good old captain bore his sore affliction and courage. To-day death lightened his grip and "Alick" as he was familiarly known upon the waterfront was with us no more.

The deceased captain was in the employ of the Wilder S. S. Co., for 20 years, and commanded the steamer Mokolii for about 15 years.

In the years 1879 he was engineer of the same steamer under Captain King, now Minister of the Interior. He was born in Australia, and was about 47 years old at the time of his death. He leaves many friends on land and sea to mourn his untimely demise.

Captain McGregor's funeral will take place on Sunday next with Masonic honors. THE INDEPENDENT extends its heartfelt sympathies and condolence to the bereaved relatives.

The Hawaiian Band.

The Hawaiian Band and Glee Club, which is to appear at the Orpheum this week, is led by Prof. Libornio, a young man whose musical education was gained at Madrid. He was for years leader of King Kalakaua's royal band and gained fame by his tour of the world with the Spanish students. The band and the glee club will appear at the Orpheum every night in connection with the regular vaudeville performance, but in order that the public may have an opportunity to hear them in full concert special matinees will be given Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons. At these matinees the entire entertainment will be by the band and glee club.—S. F. Bulletin, Sept. 28.

THE UNRIVALED

ST. LOUIS BEER

Will be served ON DRAUGHT at the # Hawaiian Hotel.

To meet the times and competition, it will be furnished at 12 1-2 cts. Per Glass

We quote from letter of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, dated August 8th:

"Your honorable firm having represented us for so many years we believe it useless to call your attention to the merits of our article, but we should like to repeat again and call your attention to the fact that ours is THE ONLY PURE BARLEY MALT BEER MANUFACTURED, and corn cereals and other adulterants as well as acids, for the preservation of beer, are unknown in our establishment. With the above you may go before the public in our name."

No encomium of ours can add to the high reputation of Anheuser Beer. Its introduction in any and every market makes it an immediate favorite. It stands without a peer, without a rival, without even a competitor. It received the highest awards at the Columbian Exposition. The reduction of the draught Beer to the prevailing price of places it within the reach of all, and he is a wise man who gets the best quality for the least money.
